History:

Muirfield Village Golf Club is the dream and work of Jack Nicklaus. The land was acquired in 1966, but construction did not begin until July 28, 1972. The golf course is situated on 220 acres, which includes an 11-acre driving range. The course was officially dedicated on Memorial Day, May 27, 1974, with an exhibition match between Nicklaus and Tom Weiskopf. Nicklaus scored a six-under-par 66, which stood as the course record until 1979.

The 18-hole layout played at 6,978 yards in its original form, but is 7,366 at present. Water can be a hazard on 13 holes and the courses initial 77 bunkers has since been increased to 80. A Columbus Pro-Am on August 11, 1975 was the first event held at Muirfield, and the first Memorial Tournament was played in May, 1976. The course has also hosted the 1986 U.S. Junior Amateur, the 1987 Ryder Cup Matches, the 1992 United States Amateur Championship, the 1995 Wendy's 3-Tour Challenge, and the 1998 Solheim Cup Matches.
