

Study Abroad

Romania & Hungary

Exploring Animals, Crops, and Soils of

Romania and Hungary

Maymester 2009

May 18-June 12

Enrollment limited:

Sign up before Nov. 30

www.agry.purdue.edu/Romania-Hungary

See details on back

PURDUE
UNIVERSITY

Where you will go:

- Romania
  - > Bucharest
  - > Iasi
  - > Cluj-Napoca,
  - > Oradea
- Hungary
  - > Debrecen
  - > Gödöllő
  - > Budapest

What you will visit:

- Agricultural & Veterinary Universities and Animal Agribusinesses
- Historical & cultural places you will likely not go on vacation such as:
  - > Farms - dairy, horse, sheep, hay, row crops
  - > The Royal Palace and Revolution Square in Bucharest
  - > Monasteries and sites from the 13th century
  - > Transylvania and the Carpathian Mountains
  - > Orphanages with farms
  - > Buda Castle and Danube River in Budapest

What you will learn:

- Economic & cultural infrastructure in emerging economies
- The application of animal and agricultural principles in countries highly dependent on agriculture
- Agronomic practices and soil resources
- Fundamentals of veterinary medicine diagnosis

What it will cost:

- Approximately $2900
- Includes airfare, lodging, most meals, transportation, cultural activities, and course materials

How to apply:

- Download application at:
www.agriculture.purdue.edu/ipiastudyabroad
- Apply before November 30th
- More questions? Contact IPIA, 494-9690, AgAbroad@purdue.edu

Who to contact:

- Phillip Owens, Agronomy, LILY 3-333, 4-0247, prowens@purdue.edu
- Mark Russell, Animal Sciences, POUL 111, 4-7677, mrussell@purdue.edu
- Michael Schutz, Animal Sciences, POUL 105, 4-9478, mschutz@purdue.edu

Call-out on October 15 at 6:00 p.m. in Lilly 2-407
and on November 11 at 6:00 p.m. in ASTL